As the potential Buyer of a net leased property, it is the Buyer's responsibility to complete a thorough due diligence investigation of this property to determine whether it is suitable to their needs. Linville Team Partners denies any obligation to carry out a due diligence examination for the Buyer.

As with any real estate investment, this Net Leased property carries significant risks. The Buyer and their legal and/or financial advisors should conduct a careful investigation of all legal and financial documents related to this property and tenant. Any projections, opinions, assumptions or estimates used in this Offering Memorandum are only examples and do not represent the present or future performance of the property. While the tenant's past performance at this or other locations is an important consideration, it is not a guarantee of future success. In addition, the lease rate for some properties, especially new construction or newly-acquired locations, may be set based on the tenant's projected sales with little or no record of actual performance or comparable rents for the area. Returns are not guaranteed; the tenant(s) and any guarantor(s) may fail to pay the lease rent, property taxes, or may fail to comply with other material terms of the lease. Cash flow may be interrupted in part or in whole due to market, economic, environmental or other conditions. Regardless of tenant history and lease guarantees, the Buyer is responsible for conducting an investigation of all matters affecting the intrinsic value of the property and the value of any long-term lease, including the likelihood of locating a replacement tenant if the current tenant should default or abandon the property, and the lease terms that the Buyer may be able to negotiate with a potential replacement tenant considering the location of the property and the Buyer's legal ability to make alternate use of the property.

The Owner expressly reserve the right, at their sole discretion, to reject any or all expressions of interest or offers regarding the property and/or to terminate discussions with the Buyer at any time without notice. The Owner has no legal commitment or obligations to any Buyer reviewing the Offering Memorandum or making an offer to purchase the Property unless a written agreement for the purchase of the Property has been fully executed, delivered and approved by the Owner. The Buyer agrees not to contact the tenant, their employees or customers without prior permission from the Owner.

Linville Team Partners is not affiliated with or endorsed by the commercial tenant or lessee identified in this Offering Memorandum. Its inclusion is solely for the purpose of providing tenant lessee information about this listing to prospective customers.

By accepting this Offering Memorandum, the Buyer agrees to release Linville Team Partners and hold it harmless from any claim, cost, expense or liability arising out of the buyer's investigation and/or purchase of this Net Leased property.

Information About Brokerage Services - Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
